

The Sponsor and Candidate are asked to spend a day together. They may participate in a religious activity and/or a pleasure activity. The purpose of this time together is to “get to know each other” and to develop a support system especially as a spiritual support.

A description of this day is to be included in the letter of recommendation for the Candidate by the Sponsor.